

World Humanitarian Summit Commitments
Global Campaign for Education
2019

Individual commitments

3E Eliminate gaps in education for children, adolescents and young people

Joint Commitments

Commitment Description	Joint Commitment	Commitment Type	Core Responsibility	Commitment ID
The Global Campaign for Education commits to building the capacity of broad-based civil society coalitions in 10 countries to engage with rights-based approaches to safe, quality and inclusive education, and to ensure quality education is delivered to all in emergency, relief and development settings. Other Partners that are yet to register: Global Campaign for Education is a network of CSO working with education in 100 countries see www.campaignforeducation.org		Capacity	Leave No One Behind	178001
The Global Campaign for Education commits to facilitate in ensuring collective education reaction to aftermath of emergencies through engaging with representative networks of local civil society in countries where it works. Other Partners that are yet to register: Global Campaign for Education is a network of CSO working with education in 100 countries see www.campaignforeducation.org		Operational	Leave No One Behind	178002
The Global Campaign for Education commits to monitoring education funding and delivery in at least 10 countries affected by emergencies and protracted crises to support the realization of the right to quality and equitable education in line with existing human rights standards and the commitments made under the SDGs Other Partners that are yet to register: Global Campaign for Education is a network of CSO working with education in 100 countries see www.campaignforeducation.org		Operational	Leave No One Behind	178003

The Global Campaign for Education commits to supporting sector planning in 5 countries to support disaster preparedness, conflict sensitive education and ensure effective delivery in instances of protracted crises with a view of strengthening quality public education systems and improving the overall efficiency and transparency in educational systems.	Operational	Leave No One Behind	178004
Other Partners that are yet to register: Global Campaign for Education is a network of CSO working with education in 100 countries see www.campaignforeducation.org
The Global Campaign for Education commits to working with international bodies, national governments, local civil society, teachers' unions, policy makers and media to advocate for investment of additional resources for education in emergencies and protracted crises, and harmonization of all fund flows.	Advocacy	Leave No One Behind	178005
Other Partners that are yet to register: Global Campaign for Education is a network of CSO working with education in 100 countries see www.campaignforeducation.org
The Global Campaign for Education pledges to hold governments and other duty-bearers accountable for their international commitments made here at the World Humanitarian Summit, including those relating to the new education crisis platform, as well as preexisting international and national commitments. It pledges to continue to actively participate in dialogue focused on education in conflict and crisis, including regarding the new platform.	Policy	Leave No One Behind	178006
Other Partners that are yet to register: Global Campaign for Education is a network of CSO working with education in 100 countries see www.campaignforeducation.org

The Global Campaign for Education reiterates its commitment to the fundamental human right to education for all, and that this right must be realized before, during and after a crisis.

Ensuring the active involvement of citizens in determining the first lines of response, participating in processes of policy and programme development, and ensuring accountability for implementation is critical to effective delivery of quality education in conflicts and crises.

Policy

Leave No One Behind

178007

Other Partners that are yet to register: Global Campaign for Education is a network of CSO working with education in 100 countries see www.campaignforeducation.org