Gender-based violence prevention and response

Global Star Logistics (China) Co., Ltd.(GSL), since its inception followed the principle of "all people are created equal, equal opportunity for all and everyone does their fair justice". We support that "everyone has the right to equal pay for equal work without any discrimination". Not to be discriminated against by factors such as age, race, gender, marital status, religious belief, ethnic origin or physical disability. The Company guarantees to provide employees with a fair working environment and employment security. At the same time, we also require the enterprise's partners to do the same to respect human rights and prevent employees from being invaded. In the future, we will be relentless in the "respect for human rights, people-oriented" as the management policy of the enterprise.

2. A. How are you measuring progress toward achieving your commitments? Only the categories selected by the organisation will be seen below.

- ☒ Through existing, internal systems or frameworks for monitoring, reporting and/or evaluation.

B. How are you assessing whether progress on your commitments is leading toward change in the direction of the transformation?

GSL has its own internal procedures. Written documents that identify our responsibilities and also detail staff rights. We believe our procedures exceed the level requested by the government. Our staff are happy working in our company.

3. A. Please select no more than 3 key challenges faced in implementing the commitments related to this transformation. Only the categories selected by the organisation will be seen below.

- ☒ Human resources/capacity
☒ IHL and IHRL compliance and accountability
☒ Multi-stakeholder coordination

B. How are these challenges impacting achievement of this transformation?

GSL believes in business, respect of human rights and humanity are the base elements that we need to follow. We also spread this idea to our stakeholders.

4. Highlight actions planned for 2018 to advance implementation of your commitments in order to achieve this transformation.

GSL will develop a more humanity-based transport business, not only as a transport company but also because we believe that basic humanity is what we can achieve with our own hands and we can make the world slightly better.

5. What steps or actions are needed to make collective progress to achieve this transformation?

GSL believes an open mind and sharing ideas can make the most efficient development. So we are open to cooperate with any private and public firms or non-government organizations to achieve goals that benefit humanity.

6. List any good practice or examples of innovation undertaken individually or in cooperation with others to advance this transformation.

GSL presents its humanity (transport) job as widely as possible. As a small private transport firm, we may not contribute a lot of charity money but we believe our talent on transport and logistics will provide our best support to humanity actions.

Initiative Reports

New Way of Working :

What concrete actions have you taken in support of the initiative.

Global Star Logistics, as a private sector stakeholder, believes starting from now, starting from hands-on work, improving a bit, some times just a slightly bit each step, can make the world a bit better. So it will apply a new way of working, including better safety, a better working environment, more gender equality, etc. Global Star Logistics believes it can positively contribute to the work of the initiatives launched at the WHS.
